WEBINARS ON THE EU CHARTER AND ON THE EU PROCEDURAL RIGHTS DIRECTIVES

After the webinars we organised on Digitalisation of Justice (31 March 2025) and on Immigration and Asylum (26 May 2026), and in line with our policy of offering to EU lawyers free of charge online training on relevant issues of EU law affecting their daily practice, we are organising two new webinars, one on the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights the other on the EU procedural Rights Directives.

Lawyers interested in these webinars can register by clicking the links below. Places are limited and participation is not guaranteed by registration but through connecting on the day of the webinars. The video recordings of the webinars and supporting material will be uploaded on our website.

RESULTS OF THE LAWYEREX 2 PROJECT

LAWYEREX 2 continued the extraordinary results that had been achieved by its predecessors, which led to the establishment of a fully functional and highly regarded exchange scheme for lawyers in Europe.

The main result of the project was that it offered the opportunity to 124 lawyers from 9 different countries to work abroad in host institutions of the legal sector (law firms or Bars), to learn and immerse themselves in other Member States legal systems and to integrate into the working life of their counterparts in other EU countries.

Alongside the excellent ratings (4.85 out of 5 was the average satisfaction rate), participating lawyers and their supervisors stressed the added value of the project in the following regards:

- greater mobility of lawyers in Europe
- increased knowledge of other Member States' legal systems
- consolidation of cross-border networks of lawyers and law firms and
- contribution to the development of a common, European judicial culture.

But the effort cannot stop here. Based on the successful mechanism in place, ELF in partnership with 13 lawyers' organisations presented to the European Commission a continuation project called LAWYEREX 3.

EU Member States represented in the LAWYEREX 2 exchange scheme: Italy, Spain, France, Greece, Cyprus, Romania, Poland, Slovakia and the Czech Republic

LAWYEREX 2 TESTIMONIAL

Thanks to this well-functioning exchange scheme for lawyers, I have had a first-hand experience of what is like to be a lawyer in another country. I was able to learn the basics of the Greek legal system, directly from a criminal lawyer in Athens who fully integrated me into his daily routine. I would strongly recommend this experience to any lawyer who wants to learn about the law and culture of another Member State of the EU.

START OF TRADICIL SEMINARS

The seminars on EU civil law (family law and succession law) to be organised in the framework of the TRADICIL project kicked-off with the first seminar in Bucharest on 23 May about family law. A second and third seminar are scheduled to take place in Athens (2 June) and Madrid (6 June) on succession law and family law respectively.

These seminars will continue after the summer break, with seminars to be held in Dublin (15 September 2025), Madrid (October, date to be confirmed), Nicosia (14 November 2025), Barcelona (21 November 2025) and Paris (3 December 2025). More information about the TRADICIL project is available at ELF's website.
